LOCAL LAW NO.: _____ - 2021

OF

OCTOBER 25, 2021

A LOCAL LAW AMENDING CHAPTER 240 ENTITLED “RENTAL PROPERTIES” TO ADD ARTICLE III ENTITLED
“PROHIBITION OF EVICTION WITHOUT GOOD CAUSE” TO THE CODE OF ORDINANCES OF THE CITY OF NEWBURGH

BE IT ENACTED, by the Council of the City of Newburgh, New York that Chapter 240 “Rental Properties” be and is hereby amended to add Article III, “Prohibition of Eviction Without Good Cause” as follows:

SECTION 1 - TITLE

This Local Law shall be referred to as “A Local Law amending Chapter 240 entitled ‘Rental Properties’ and to add Article III entitled ‘Prohibition of Eviction Without Good Cause’ to the Code of Ordinances of the City of Newburgh”.

SECTION 2 - PURPOSE AND INTENT

The Council of the City of Newburgh commissioned and completed a Housing Needs Assessment to evaluate current housing needs in the City of Newburgh and to promote the development of long-term housing policies. The Housing Needs Assessment found housing cost burden rates for renter-occupied homes at significantly higher rates for City of Newburgh renters than for those in Orange County and all City of Newburgh census tracts had cost burden rates for renters over 50%. Renters in the City of Newburgh, especially, low- and moderate-income renters increasingly are faced with the refusal of landlords to continue to rent to otherwise credit-worthy tenants and tenants who are otherwise following all applicable laws. Increased real estate prices in the City is leading to gentrification and the displacement of tenants who cannot afford increasing rents. The Housing Needs Assessment produced the Newburgh Housing Report which outlined policy themes, goals and actions that could assist the City in developing a long-term strategy for meeting local housing needs. Strengthening and expanding eviction prevention programs, including adopting a “just cause” eviction law was identified as an action item to reduce incidents of eviction leading to homelessness. The primary purpose of this Article is to implement a policy recommendation of the City of Newburgh Housing Needs Assessment and Newburgh Housing Report intended to protect tenants from exorbitant and predatory rent increases that could result in a significant increase in homelessness in the City of Newburgh.

SECTION 3 - AMENDMENT

The Code of Ordinances of the City of Newburgh is hereby amended to add new Article III entitled “Prohibition of Eviction Without Good Cause” to Chapter 240 entitled “Rental Properties” to read as follows:

ARTICLE III. PROHIBITION OF EVICTION WITHOUT GOOD CAUSE

§ 240-30. Legislative authority.

- A. Pursuant to the New York State Constitution, the City Council of the City of Newburgh may adopt and amend laws pertaining to the protection, conduct, safety, health and well-being of the persons and property in the City.
- B. This local law is authorized by the Municipal Home Rule Law, adopted as chapter 36-a of the Consolidated Laws of the State of New York, and the General City Law, adopted as chapter 21 of the Consolidated Laws of the State of New York.

§ 240-31. Definitions.

As used in this Article, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

DISABLED PERSON means as applied according to the definition set forth in the New York State Public Housing Law §14(4)(c)(iii).

HOUSING ACCOMMODATION means residential premises, including a dwelling, dwelling unit, or rooming unit as defined in this Chapter, located in the City of Newburgh.

LANDLORD means any owner, lessor, sub-lessor, assignor, or other person receiving or entitled to receive rent for the occupancy of any housing accommodation or the agent of any the foregoing.

RENT means any consideration, including any bonus, benefit, or gratuity, demanded or received for or in consideration with the possession, use, or occupancy of housing accommodations or the execution or transfer of a lease for such housing accommodations.

TENANT means a tenant, sub-tenant, lessee, sub-lessee, assignee, manufactured home tenant as defined in paragraph one of subsection (A) of section two hundred thirty-three of the New York State Real Property Law, an occupant of a rooming house or hotel as defined in section seven hundred eleven of the New York State Real Property Actions and Proceedings Law, or any other person entitled to the possession, use or occupancy of any housing accommodation.

§ 240-32. Applicability.

This article shall apply to all housing accommodations except:

- A. Owner-occupied premises with less than four units.

- B. Premises where the possession, use or occupancy of which is solely incident to employment and such employment is being lawfully terminated.
- C. Premises otherwise subject to regulation of rents or evictions pursuant to state or federal law to the extent that such state or federal law requires “good cause” for termination or non-renewal of such tenancies.
- D. Premises sublet pursuant to section two hundred twenty-six-b of the New York State Real Property Law or otherwise, where the sub-lessor seeks in good faith to recover possession of such housing accommodation for personal use and occupancy.

§ 240-33. Necessity for good cause.

No landlord shall, by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession, by failure to renew any lease, or otherwise, remove any tenant from housing accommodation except for good cause as defined in Section 240-34 of this article.

§ 240-34. Grounds for removal of tenants.

- A. No landlord shall remove a tenant from any housing accommodation, or attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that the tenant has no written lease or that the lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, except upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction entered in an appropriate judicial action or proceeding in which the plaintiff or petitioner has established one of the following grounds as good cause for removal or eviction:
 - 1. The tenant has failed to pay rent due and owing, provided, however, that the rent due and owing, or any part thereof, did not result from a rent increase or pattern of rent increases which, regardless of the tenant's prior consent, if any, is unconscionable or imposed for the purpose of circumventing the intent of this article. In determining whether all or part of the rent due and owing is the result of an unconscionable rent increase or pattern of rent increases, the court may consider, among other factors, i) the rate of the increase relative to the tenant's ability to afford said increase, ii) improvements made to the subject unit or common areas serving said unit, iii) whether the increase was precipitated by the tenant engaging in the activity described at section 223-b (1(a)-(c)) of the New York State Real Property Law, iv) significant market changes relevant to the subject unit, and v) the condition of the unit or common areas serving the unit, and it shall be a rebuttable presumption that the rent for a dwelling not protected by rent regulation is unconscionable or imposed for the purpose of circumventing the intent of this article if said rent has been increased in any calendar year by a percentage exceeding five percent;
 - 2. The tenant is violating a substantial obligation of their tenancy, other than the obligation to surrender possession, and has failed to cure such violation after written notice that the violation cease within ten days of receipt of such written notice, provided however, that the obligation of tenancy for which violation is claimed was not imposed for the purpose of circumventing the intent of this article;
 - 3. The tenant is committing or permitting a nuisance in such housing accommodation, or is maliciously or by reason of negligence damaging the housing accommodation; or the tenant's conduct, including but not limited to, smoking inside the dwelling unit where smoking inside the dwelling unit has been prohibited by the landlord and such prohibition has been communicated to the tenant, failing to dispose of waste created by the tenant's pet(s) from the property on which the dwelling unit is located in accordance with relevant laws, and causing the accumulation of excessive rubbish and/or garbage in the dwelling unit and common areas, is such as to interfere with the comfort of the landlord or other tenants or occupants of the same or adjacent buildings or structures;

4. Occupancy of the housing accommodation by the tenant is in violation of or causes a violation of law and the landlord is subject to civil or criminal penalties therefore; provided however that the City of Newburgh or other qualified governmental entity has issued an order requiring the tenant to vacate the housing accommodation. No tenant shall be removed from possession of a housing accommodation on such ground unless the court finds that the cure of the violation of law requires the removal of the tenant and that the landlord did not, through neglect or deliberate action or failure to act, create the condition necessitating the order to vacate. In instances where the landlord does not undertake to cure conditions of the housing accommodation causing such violation of the law, the tenant shall have the right to pay or secure payment in a manner satisfactory to the court, to cure such violation provided that any tenant expenditures shall be applied against rent to which the landlord is entitled. In instances where removal of a tenant is absolutely essential to their health and safety, the removal of the tenant shall be without prejudice to any leasehold interest or other right of occupancy the tenant may have and the tenant shall be entitled to resume possession at such time as the dangerous conditions have been removed. Nothing herein shall abrogate or otherwise limit the right of a tenant to bring an action for monetary damages against the landlord to compel compliance by the landlord with all applicable laws;
5. The tenant is using or permitting the housing accommodation to be used for an illegal purpose;
6. The tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the housing accommodation for the purpose of making necessary repairs or improvements required by law or for the purpose of showing the housing accommodation to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee, or other person having a legitimate interest therein;
7. The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of a housing accommodation located in a building containing fewer than twelve units because of immediate and compelling necessity for their own personal use and occupancy as their principal residence, or the personal use and occupancy as principal residence of their partner, spouse, parent, child, stepchild, father-in-law or mother-in-law, when no other suitable housing accommodation in such building is available. This paragraph shall permit recovery of only one housing accommodation and shall not apply to a housing accommodation occupied by a tenant who is sixty-two years of age or older or who is a disabled person;
8. The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of any or all housing accommodations located in a building with less than five units to personally occupy such housing accommodations as their principal residence;
9. The owner-landlord has in good faith entered into a contract for the sale of the housing accommodation and such contract requires that the housing accommodation be transferred free and clear of any and all residential tenancy obligations as a condition of such sale where the owner-landlord has no shared financial or other interest with the potential buyer other than the sale of the housing accommodation in question and submitted sufficient proof to the court thereof.

10. Where the tenant has refused in bad faith to enter into a written lease which has been offered in good faith to the tenant by the landlord subject to the following:
 - a. The proposed written lease must have been offered to the tenant in writing on at least two occasions at least two weeks apart, which such written offer to include:
 - i. An original and one copy of the proposed written lease, executed by the landlord or the landlord's designee;
 - ii. Notice of the landlord's intention to pursue eviction within 120 days pursuant to this article if the tenant rejects the proposed written lease and/or does not enter into said lease within forty-five days of the initial offer;
 - iii. Clear instructions to the tenant concerning the matter in which the tenant is to communicate to the landlord acceptance or rejection of the written lease; and
 - iv. Notice of any proposed increase equal to or greater than 5% shall be provided in compliance with New York State Real Property Law Section 226-C
 - b. The proposed written lease shall not supersede an existing, active lease to which the landlord and tenant are parties;
 - c. The terms of the proposed lease may not:
 - i. Be unconscionable and/or mandate or proscribe activities not rationally related to the regulation of activities which would create a nuisance at the property or cause discomfort to the tenants or occupants of the same or adjacent buildings or structures as described in Section 240-34(A)(3) above; or
 - ii. Substantially alter the terms of any existing lease;
 - d. The proposed written lease shall not be offered for the purposes of circumventing this article;
 - e. The tenant shall be entitled to dismissal of any eviction petition brought for the tenant's refusal to enter into a lease according to these terms if:
 - i. The tenant consents to enter into the proposed written lease presented in the first offer pursuant to subsection 10(a) at any time prior to the execution of the warrant of eviction regardless of landlord's willingness to accept said consent at the time it is communicated; and/or
 - ii. Prior to the commencement of the eviction proceeding the tenant attempted in good faith to negotiate the terms of the proposed written lease and that the landlord refused in bad faith to engage in such negotiation; and/or
 - iii. The tenant's failure to enter into the proposed written lease was due to a good faith failure to comprehend the terms of the proposed written lease; and/or
 - iv. The tenant is a victim of domestic violence as defined by New York State Social Service Law Section 459-A and is unable to safely enter into the proposed written lease due to good faith concerns for the tenant's personal safety; and/or

- v. The proposed written lease includes an increase in rent or increase in the tenant's responsibility for recurring payments associated with the tenancy which is unconscionable or imposed for the purposes of circumventing this article per Section 240-34(A)(1) above;
 - f. That any proceeding for eviction pursuant to this subsection shall have been commenced within 120 days of the proposed written lease first having been offered to the tenant.
- B. A tenant required to surrender a housing accommodation by virtue of the operation of paragraph (7), (8), or (9) of Section 240-24(A) of this Article shall have a cause of action in any court of competent jurisdiction for damages, declaratory, and injunctive relief against a landlord or purchaser of the premises who makes a fraudulent statement regarding a proposed use of the housing accommodation. In any action or proceeding brought pursuant to this provision a prevailing tenant shall be entitled to recovery of actual damages, and reasonable attorneys' fees.
- C. Nothing in this section shall abrogate or limit the tenant's right, pursuant to section seven hundred fifty-one of the New York State Real Property Actions and Proceedings Law, to permanently stay the issuance or execution of a warrant or eviction in a summary proceeding, whether characterized as a nonpayment, objectionable tenancy, or holdover proceeding, the underlying basis of which is the nonpayment of rent, so long as the tenant complies with the procedural requirements of section seven hundred fifty-one of the New York State Real Property Actions and Proceedings Law.

Re: Orange County Tax Exemption for
City of Newburgh Reservoir Lands for 2023

Dear Ms. Ramppen:

Thank you for your October 1, 2021 letter to Mayor Harvey advising that it is time to request that the Orange County Legislature exempt reservoir and filter plant properties owned by the City of Newburgh in the Towns of New Windsor and Newburgh for the year 2023.

Please note that there is a typographical error in Schedule "A" affecting one of the City of Newburgh properties located in the Town of Newburgh. The City of Newburgh property located in the Town of Newburgh is incorrectly identified in Schedule "A" as Section 7, Block 2, Lot 22.1 and should be corrected to be identified as Section 97, Block 2, Lot 22.1.

Thank you for your assistance with this matter.

Very truly yours,
