The Historic Preservation Review Process in New York State

In order to insure that historic preservation is carefully considered in publicly-funded or permitted undertakings*, there are laws at each level of government that require projects to be reviewed for their potential impact/effect on historic properties. At the federal level, Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 (NHPA) directs the review of federally funded, licensed or permitted projects. At the state level, Section 14.09 of the New York State Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation Law of 1980 performs a comparable function. Local environmental review for municipalities is carried out under the State Environmental Quality Review Act (SEQRA) of 1978.

<http://nysparks.state.ny.us> then select HISTORIC PRESERVATION then select Environmental Review

Project review is conducted in two stages. First, the Field Services Bureau assesses affected properties to determine whether or not they are listed or eligible for listing in the New York State or National Registers of Historic Places. If so, it is deemed "historic" and worthy of protection and the second stage of review is undertaken. The project is reviewed to evaluate its impact on the properties significant materials and character. Where adverse effects are identified, alternatives are explored to avoid, or reduce project impacts; where this is unsuccessful, mitigation measures are developed and formal agreement documents are prepared stipulating these measures.

ALL PROJECTS SUBMITTED FOR REVIEW SHOULD INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING MATERIAL(S).

Project Description

Attach a full description of the nature and extent of the work to be undertaken as part of this project. Relevant portions of the project applications or environmental statements may be submitted.

On behalf of the City we are requesting an expedited review. Below are brief descriptions of each of the projects included in Phase I and Phase II of the LTCP that the City is seeking funding to complete:

Regulator No. 2 Upgrades

The location of Regulator No. 2 does not have an address, it is located approximately 800-feet East of Mill Street and Bridge Street as shown on Figure 1. This project includes modifying the regulator to eliminate a hydraulic bottleneck allowing more flow through the system and reducing the hydraulic grade line of the sewer. The site was disturbed during the construction of the original interceptor sewer, CSO discharge sewer, regulator and access road. The foot print of the regulator may be increased slightly.

South Water Street Sewer Separation

This project includes replacement of the existing combined sewer system with new separated storm and sanitary sewer systems on South Water Street as shown on Figure 2.

Screenings Upgrade at the Water Pollution Control Plant

This project is located at the City's Water Pollution Control Plant (WPCP) at 2 Renwick Street and includes the replacement of the existing grinders and fine screens in the existing screenings and grit removal building with new mechanical bar screens. Work will take place inside an existing building in the area shown on Figure 3.

New Drain Outlet at Downing Pond

A new drain outlet will be installed in Downing Park Pond to allow the City to better control the elevation of the water in the pond. The location of Downing Park Pond is shown in Figure 4. The new drain outlet will be tied into a new storm sewer and be directed from the existing combined sewer system.

New Storm Drain along Third Street from Downing Pond to Chambers Street

The outlet from Downing Park Pond is currently connected to the existing combined sewer system. This project includes the construction of a new storm sewer along Third Street from Downing Park Pond to Chambers Street. This will separate the Downing Park Pond drain from the existing combined sewer system. See Figure 5 for the location of this project.

Separation of Combined Sewers on Water Street from Carpenter Avenue to Montgomery Street

This project includes replacement of the existing combined sewer system with new separated sanitary and storm sewer systems on Water Street from Carpenter Avenue to Montgomery Street as shown on Figure 6.

Reconstruction of Broadway between Grand Street and Dubois Street

This project is located on Broadway between Grand Street and Dubois Street and includes reconstruction of the roadway and sidewalks as well as separation of the existing combined sewers. New storm and sanitary sewers will be installed in the area shown on Figure 7.

In accordance with the Historic Preservation Review Process, the following information is included in this submittal for the project:

1. Completed SHPO Project Review Form;
2. Project Location Figures; and
3. Project Photo Logs.

We request that this information be reviewed and a determination be provided on whether or not the project has the potential to impact cultural resources. If the project has the potential to impact cultural resources, we would appreciate being informed of additional steps that are required to further evaluate the potential for adverse effects.

Dear Mr. Morris:

In accordance with the requirements of the New York State Environmental Facilities Corporation (NYS EFC) Water Infrastructure Improvements Grant Application, the City of Newburgh needs to complete the following two activities prior to the April 15, 2016 application deadline:

- Provide a certified bond resolution by the City Council in the total amount of the projects shown herein authorizing the issuance of debt for the project, and;
- Provide an environmental review determination in accordance with the State Environmental Review Process (SERP) and the State Environmental Quality Review Act (SEQR). In our opinion the improvement of existing combined sewers and planning and engineer for future projects may be considered Type II actions.

Based on the planning level budgets prepared during the development of the LTCP the City is required, by Order on Consent, to complete $12.5M in for planning, engineering and construction costs for Phases I through IV. Please note that the work proposed herein for Phases III and IV are only for planning and engineering and not construction at this time. Arcadis suggests that the City authorize bonding for a total of $12.5M through the NYS EFC. Based on the grant funding program requirements, we believe that the City is eligible for both 0% hardship financing and 25% principal forgiveness (or $3.125M in grants) resulting in a total loan of $9.375M. This is a limit opportunity to leverage significant grant funding towards the implementation of the LTCP through the NYS EFC, reducing the impacts to rate payers.

617.5(c)(29)

"civil or criminal enforcement proceedings, whether administrative or judicial, including a particular course of action specifically required to be undertaken pursuant to a judgment or order, or the exercise of prosecutorial discretion;"

Examples of law enforcement actions exempt from SEQR include:

- local enforcement of zoning code violations,
- replacement of pollution control equipment with better technology pursuant to administrative or judicial order,
- closure of landfills pursuant to administrative or judicial order,
- remediation of wetland violations or hazardous waste sites under administrative or judicial order; and
- construction of a new water filtration plant, as ordered by an "administrative tribunal", because the old one was failing. Because the action was to be undertaken to satisfy the mandate specified by an administrative determination issued by an agency, the town had no discretion as far as initiating the construction, and so that element of the project can be classified as Type II. However, if the order does not explicitly specify the location of the new plant, then that siting decision may still be subject to SEQR.

When such court or administrative orders are explicit with regard to a component of this activity, the action is entirely exempt from SEQR. If, however, the orders have left some discretion as to the methods of implementing the order, those discretionary aspects of the action may still be subject to SEQR review. For example:

- A respondent was found to have an illegal dump of construction debris. If he is merely ordered to apply for a permit to construct a disposal site, but DEC is not ordered to approve the application, SEQR would apply.
- A developer has begun construction on a subdivision, and his crew bulldozes a 15 acre wetland and small pond. A DEC Environmental Conservation Police Officer catches the crew in the process of this destruction, stops the work and gives the developer a summons. The developer and DEC enforcement attorneys agree to settle the case civilly rather than criminally. In addition to paying a fine, the developer is mandated to obtain a DEC wetlands permit before he proceeds with any work for his subdivision. He is also required to reestablish the wetland and pond that he destroyed. Again, SEQR would apply to the actions covered by the wetlands permit application. However, the restoration of the wetland to its former state would be a Type II action because it was directly required by the terms of the settlement.

The fee shall be in addition to all other fees and deposits and shall not be credited against the purchase price and shall not be returnable. Any additional request made thereafter shall be made in writing and placed before the City Council for their consideration.
12. Purchaser agrees that he shall not be entitled to special or consequential damages, attorney's fees, reimbursement for any expenses incurred as a result of ownership, improvements of property, or for taxes paid during period of ownership, and this agreement by the purchaser is a material condition of the sale.
13. Sale shall be final, absolute and without recourse once title has closed and the deed has been recorded. In no event, shall City of Newburgh be or become liable for any defects in title for any cause whatsoever, and no claim, demand or suit of any nature shall exist in favor of the purchaser, his heirs, successors or assigns, against City of Newburgh arising from this sale.

The City shall not convey its interest in any street, water, sewer or drainage easement, or any other interest the City may have in the property. The City shall only convey that interest obtained by the City pursuant to the judgment rendered in an in rem tax foreclosure action filed in the Orange County Clerk's Office.
16. The description of the property shall be from the City of Newburgh Tax Map reference or a survey description certified to the City of Newburgh and provided to the City Corporation Counsel by the purchaser at least thirty (30) days in advance of closing title and approved by the City's Engineer.
17. Evictions, if necessary, are solely the responsibility of the purchaser after closing and recording of the deed.

RE: Central Hudson Purchase of Poles/Wiring and Easement Agreement

DATE: March 31, 2016

At the March 14, 2016 Council meeting, the City Council voted to table Resolution No. 65-2016 authorizing the sale of utility poles and related equipment to Central Hudson pending a referral to and review by the Conservation Advisory Council:

1. The proposed transaction documents, including the utility easement, was referred to the Conservation Advisory Council (CAC) for review. The CAC reviewed the documents and provided written comments and concerns to the Corporation Counsel on March 18, 2016 addressing the environmental conditions of the land on which the poles are sited. A copy of the CAC comment memorandum is attached for review. Subsequently, the CAC advised me that it decided that it was opposed to the CH purchase and easement transaction in its entirety.
2. I proposed revisions easement language to Central Hudson to address the environmental concerns raised in the written comments by the CAC. Central Hudson (CH) responded with comments to the proposed revised easement language. A revised easement in redline format is attached for review.

3. I also conducted more research into federal and state regulation of utility rights-of-way and maintenance easements and had further discussions with CH staff. Please be aware that public utilities, including electrical and telecommunications utilities, are subject to both Federal and State regulation, which in most cases precludes further regulation by local units of government. You may recall that a significant power outage occurred in August 2003 and affected electrical service to the entire northeastern United States. It was determined that the outage was the result of tree limbs coming into contact with transmission lines in Ohio that caused the significant disruption of service. Afterwards, the federal and state governments implemented regulations requiring public utilities to meet certain standards for tree and vegetation management in order to maintain utility transmission facilities. The New York State Public Service Commission (NYSPSC) requires electric utilities to file long-range vegetation management plans to manage their transmission facilities. The vegetation management plans must comply with standards for the width of rights-of-way and maintenance easements; standards for tree height, tree maintenance and tree trimming; standards for the management of other vegetation, including regulations for use of chemical control. Attached is the FAQ page from the NYSPSC website for Tree Trimming and Vegetation Management.
4. Central Hudson has a Long Range Vegetation Management Plan that was reviewed and approved by the NYSPSC. The plan outlines the various practices that CH follows for clearing techniques along transmission corridors. CH follows what the industry calls an Integrated Vegetation Management Program (IVM) which is an industry best practice. You can find more information in the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) website. The CH IVM Program addresses herbicide application and compliance with all NYS and Federal regulations related to its use. Only USEPA approved herbicides are used and notifications to property owners prior to chemical use as required by NYS pesticide regulations, which are known as Category 6 for utility ROWs. CH notes that for distribution ROW's such as the one at issue in the City, herbicides are applied on a much smaller scale. Typical maintenance involves cut and stump treat which requires very little chemical application. As a reference, the amount of chemical concentrate per acre applied on transmission corridors as reported to the NYSPSC during 2015 for this technique it was only .08 gallons per acre, which is very small chemical usage. There would be more exposure to chemicals from a public swimming pool or golf course than from utility ROW management practices.
5. The pole line on the Ellis Avenue parcels was installed in 1999 and is approximately 17 years old. It is nearly 1/3 of the way through its useful life of 60 years. Replacement of the pole line using today's costs would equate to approximately $125,000. Selling this pole line will provide a number of benefits to the City of Newburgh such as no maintenance costs and repair costs to the poles and equipment in the event of an outage and the timely restoration of service if an interruption were to occur. Also, the pole line will become subject to taxation after the next taxable status date following the sale. The taxable value is determined by utility appraisals sent to the City Assessor by the NYS. CH estimates that between the value of this pole line and the installation of equipment at the Ellis Ave tower, the incremental property taxes to be received by the City are approximately $17,500 annually. This is in addition to the $42,297.80 purchase price paid to the City for the pole line.

The above information is intended to assist the City Council in determining whether to authorize the sale of the utility poles and related equipment and grant the access and maintenance easement to Central Hudson.

Comments on Resolution 65, 2016

Sale of Utility Poles and Granting of Easement to Central Hudson

The CAC is witnessing extreme pressures on the City's Natural Resources, from our drinking water and its watershed, to our open spaces. We are reviewing not only the current picture, but the potential future consequences of any actions the City might take. The City must preserve its assets, not give them away. These are some initial comments. We have not fully reviewed the proposed Pilgrim Pipeline lateral extension which would run through Snake Hill, and possibly converge with other utilities.

1. See "Natural Areas and Wildlife in Your Community - A Habitat Summary Prepared for the City and Town of Newburgh May 2014." Snake Hill is a Natural Habitat. It is a special overlay district in the City's Zoning. The City must preserve its assets, not give them away.
2. How is Verizon a part of this sale? CH and Verizon have a 'cooperative agreement' of their own? So we're really giving an easement to Verizon? Shouldn't we have a separate easement agreement for Verizon?
3. Are we giving CH the right to construct, excavate, etc. underground conduits, pipes, mains and ducts for future uses and purposes? Or to their assigns and lessees? Costs to be adjusted at the expense of the entity causing such damage?
  - a. we recommend limiting rights of use for underground utilities
  - b. If CH or their lessees make 3rd party agreements to install underground gas pipes, City should not be giving away its rights!
4. Are we giving them the unilateral right to remove trees and vegetation . outside the easement, in their sole judgment, without consulting the City?
5. Are we giving them the right to use chemical means of brush and vegetation control?
6. Are we giving CH the right to determine the exact easement lines (30' easement – 15' on either side from pole)? (in some cases, a 15 foot-wide line would allow clear-cutting of extreme drop-off, potentially washing away the hillside)
  - a. The City should be able to approve the easement lines
  - b. Easement lines should be staked and visible
7. Again See "Natural Areas and Wildlife in Your Community - A Habitat Summary Prepared for the City and Town of Newburgh May 2014."

- a. There are 2 endangered species on Snake Hill: Ebony Spleenwort and Wild Columbine.
- b. There can be NO planting of 'lawn grass or 'ornamental shrubs'. Only Native Plants would be allowed to be introduced. The integrity of the natural habitat must be preserved.

In consideration of the sum of $1.00 and other valuable considerations, the receipt whereof from Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation, a domestic corporation having its principal office (residence) at 284 South Avenue, Poughkeepsie, New York and Verizon New York, Inc., a domestic corporation having its principal office (residence) at 140 West Street, New York, NY is hereby acknowledged, the undersigned hereby grant(s) and convey(s) unto said corporation(s), and each of them, their respective successors, assigns and lessees (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Corporations"), an easement for any use relating to the electric, gas, or communication industry, including, but not limited to, the installation, operation and maintenance of overhead and/or underground electric, gas or communication facilities and excluding facilities related to the petroleum industry, which easement shall be 30 feet in width throughout its extent, in, upon, under, over and across the lands of the undersigned, including roads and highways thereon and adjacent thereto, situated in the City of Newburgh, County of Orange, State of New York.

Said easement shall be located in, along, and/or adjacent to both sides of Grantor's access road; said access road extends from the end of Ellis Avenue in a generally southwesterly direction to a communications tower currently located on Grantor's parcel. Together with the rights for guying facilities and service extensions to be located outside of the stated easement width.

Together with the permanent right at all times to have access thereto within the easement and across the remaining premise(s) of the undersigned, and to enter thereon, and to construct, excavate, place, relocate, extend, operate, maintain and to protect, repair, replace and remove, in, over and under the property covered by said easement, such facilities, including, but not limited to, lines or poles, cables, crossarms, wires, guys, braces, underground conduits, pipes, mains and ducts, and all other appurtenances and fixtures adaptable to the present and future needs, uses and purposes of said eCorporations, their respective successors, assigns and lessees, and provided that no pipes, conduits or mains shall be installed for the purpose of transporting petroleum or petroleum products in the right of way and easement and further provided that physical damage to the property owned by the undersigned caused solely by said eCorporations, their respective successors, assigns or lessees, shall be adjusted at the expense of the person or entity so causing such damage.

Together with the permanent right to also trim, cut, clear cut to ground level and at the election of either Corporation remove at any time such brush, trees and other objects, thereon or on adjacent property of the undersigned, including trees, brush and other objects located outside the easement, as in the sole judgment of either Corporation may fall upon or come in contact with the facilities or may interfere with, obstruct or endanger the construction, operation or maintenance of said rights, facilities and other appurtenances and fixtures or any thereof, which may hereafter be constructed in, over, or across said easement provided that clear cutting, except for a dangerous tree or condition, to ground level outside the easement area is subject to the prior written approval of the City Engineer. Said right shall include the right to use chemical means of brush and vegetation control within the limits of the easement and rights of way where applicable. Any chemical use shall be in accordance with all Federal and State regulations pertaining to utility right-of-way maintenance.

The exact location of said easement and lines is to be as determined by said corporations having regard to the origin, general direction and destination of said facilities and the requirements of said corporations.

Reserving unto the undersigned the right to only plant and cultivate native plants, lawn grasses and low growing ~~ornamental~~ shrubs within said easement, and the right to cross and recross said easement, provided that any such cultivation and/or use of said easement shall not in the sole judgment of said Corporations interfere with, obstruct or endanger any of the rights granted as aforesaid and provided that no house, shed, garage, outbuilding, pool, road, driveway or other structures or above or in ground improvements shall be erected, constructed placed, installed, or located and no excavating, mining or blasting shall be undertaken or performed within the limits of said easement without the prior written consent of said Corporations.

This easement and the provisions hereof shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the heirs, legal representatives, successors, assigns and lessees of the undersigned and said Corporations, respectively.

Tree Trimming and Vegetation Management

Tree Trimming, Tree Removal and Vegetation Management

Electric system reliability is of primary concern to the Public Service Commission. Unfortunately, system outages can impact the reliability of New York State's electric power grid. System outages can be triggered by individual component failures resulting in potential serious consequences in terms of economic, personal and societal losses that may be suffered by the public and communities affected in a blackout or extended power outage.

Major disturbances in electric service can result from fallen tree limbs and overgrown vegetation coming in contact with transmission and distribution lines. In New York, reliable power delivery depends upon the competent maintenance and operation by utilities of over 15,000 miles of electric transmission facilities within the state. Under state law, the Public Service Commission is charged with ensuring safe and reliable operation of the state's electric grid.

The blackout that disrupted electric service to the entire northeastern United States in August 2003 was caused by tree limbs coming in contact with transmission lines in Ohio thereby causing major power failures.

Utility Vegetation Management Plans

In order to help ensure the highest degree of electric system reliability for the benefit of New York State's residents, electric utilities are required to file with the Public Service Commission long-range vegetation management plans to effectively manage transmission facility right-of-way corridors they rent or own in order to minimize power outages due to encroaching tree limbs or overgrown vegetation on utility right-of-ways. The Public Service Commission requirements for vegetation management extend only to property controlled by the utility via fee or easement.

The utilities' plans support and require an integrated approach to managing vegetation within a financially and environmentally prudent framework intended to maintain a high degree of reliability of the New York's electric grid. ## Frequently Asked Questions

Q. Does the federal government require transmission owners or electric utilities to address issues related to vegetation management and electric facilities?

A. Yes. Federal agencies have taken steps to minimize tree contacts with electric facilities in utility right-of-ways. The North American Electric Reliability Corporation's (NERC) FAC 003-1 vegetation standard requires vegetation management planning for bulk transmission line (200kV and above) and for lower voltage lines deemed “critical.” more

The Federal Energy Regulatory Commission [external link] (FERC) has been actively holding utilities accountable and assessing fines of hundreds of thousands dollars for failing to maintain vegetation growth in and near right-of-ways. more

Q. Does New York State require electric utilities to address issues related to vegetation management and electric facilities?

A. Yes. Under 16 NYCRR, Part 84 of the Public Service Commission’s rules and regulations and the Commission’s order in Case 04-E-0822 (53 kb, 30 page, PDF) provide the framework for how each utility develops and implements its long-range vegetation management plan for the utilities’ right-of ways. The state’s requirement for utilities’ long-range plans requires vegetation management planning in right-of-way corridors for transmission facilities comprised of 34 kV and above, except where located entirely on public streets or roads in right-of-way corridors.

Central to the Public Service Commission’s longstanding policies on appropriate right-of-way management is the comprehensive and routine treatment of each right-of-way corridor, with the establishment of treatment cycles that ensure each right-of-way is revisited on a periodic basis. Upon treatment, all tall-growing or “undesirable” vegetation is removed along the entire designed right-of-way corridor. Through this regime, “desirable” (i.e., low growing) vegetation is enhanced. Reliability and the environment are preserved at the lowest feasible nominal cost.

The right-of-way maintenance program of each utility is reviewed and assessed annually by Staff of the Public Service Commission. This review includes a field inspection of a portion of each utility’s right-of-way system, a tree-caused outage assessment, and a trends analysis. Annual right-of-way management expenditures, staffing levels, acres treated per year, danger tree (i.e., trees with cracks or decay in proximity of a utility right-of-way) removal, herbicide use and complaint handling are also analyzed.

Q. Why must utilities perform right-of-way vegetation management activities such as tree trimming?

A. For electric power to be provided to customers, it must first be transmitted from the sources of generation to the places of distribution and consumption. Reliable power delivery in New York depends upon the competent maintenance and operation by utilities of over 15,000 miles of electric transmission facilities.

Over 90 percent of the tree-caused outages on transmission right-of-ways occurred when a tree growing along the edge or outside of the right-of-way fell. Many of these outages are tied to various types of minor storm events, including wind, rain, and snow.

Q. Are the state's utilities permitted to use herbicides within the right-of-way corridors for vegetation management?

A. Yes. Herbicides that are used in a utility right-of-way corridor have been approved by the federal Environmental Protection Agency and the state Department of Environmental Conservation. Herbicides provide the most efficient and effective way to remove unwanted plants from the rights-of-way in a manner that is least disruptive to the environment.

Q. May a landowner manage the utilities' right-of-way on their own?

A. Generally utilities do not allow for this to occur due to a number of issues such as safety, liability and federal regulations. However, the utilities do support compatible uses of the right-of-way activities such as agricultural uses.

Q. Who do I call if I have a complaint with how the utility is conducting vegetation management work on my land or the land that the company owns?

A. A utility is interested in hearing from landowners if there is a problem. Prior to vegetation management work in a right-of-way by a utility, you should receive notification (with a name and phone number to call) indicating that work will be taking place in and around your area. If that does not happen and you need assistance, first contact your utility.

If there is not a satisfactory resolution concerning the disputed matter by your utility related to vegetation management in your area, you may then contact the New York State Public Service Commission's Office of Consumer Services at 1-800-342-3377 or file a complaint by visiting www.dps.ny.gov.

Q. What if a utility trims or removes a tree or vegetation outside of the company's right-of-way or fails to clean up debris after trimming or removing trees from the utility's right-of-way?

A. Although utilities' vegetation management activities are limited to right-of-way corridors they control through fee or easement, occasionally contractors hired by utilities have trimmed or removed trees that were not within the utility right-of-way, or have failed to clean up trimmed branches, logs or chips. In such instances, it is recommended you contact the utility.

If the disputed matter cannot be resolved to your satisfaction, you may then contact the New York State Public Service Commission's Office of Consumer Services at 1-800-342-3377 or file a complaint by visiting www.dps.ny.gov.

Q. Are there minimum height and width requirements for vegetation growth near utility right-of-ways?

A. As falling trees or limbs into transmission lines are a primary source of tree-caused power failures, below are guidelines for tree planting and height clearances from the center of the utility right-of-ways:

- Trees planted 30 feet to 60 feet from transmission line right-of-ways should not exceed 15 feet in height;
- Trees planted 60 feet to 90 feet away from transmission line right-of-ways should not exceed 25 feet in height; and
- Trees planted 90 feet to 120 feet away from transmission line right-of-ways should not exceed 60 feet in height.

Q. Does planting or removing trees and shrubs present a safety hazard whether or not the activity occurs outside of a utility right-of-way?

A. With proper planning, landowners can avoid potential problems of interacting with utilities' underground facilities and avoid a serious accident, injury or costly property damage while performing outdoor planting projects.

Before beginning your planting project, contact Dig Safely, New York at 811 or 1-800-962-7962 at least two (2) working days, but not more than 10 (ten) working days, so as not to disrupt any underground electric, telephone, sewer, cable or natural gas lines. For more information, please visit: www.digsafelynewyork.com [external link]

Q. Are there any potential dangers working on house projects near overhead transmission or distribution lines?

A. Potential hazardous situations exist if you work on house projects near overhead power lines. Common household products such as aluminum siding, pipes, tools, lumber, gutters and ladders conduct electricity and contact with these items near overhead power lines could cause serious injury or even death. Before performing house projects near overhead power lines, contact your utility.

Customer Assistance Staff of the New York State Department of Public Service (Department) will actively work with the utilities and impacted land owners whenever the Department becomes aware of instances requiring customer assistance to remedy matters related to utility vegetation management in right-of-ways.

Prior to contacting the New York State Department of Public Service, it is recommended that a landowner first contact the utility and attempt to resolve the issue. If the vegetation management issue cannot be resolved to your satisfaction, a landowner may file a complaint with the New York State Department of Public Service by calling 1-800-342-3377, 8:30 am to 4:00 pm, Monday through Friday or by filing a complaint by visiting www.dps.ny.gov.
